

New YWCA Office Accepted By Mrs. Leondrus Stamps

Election of Mrs. Leondrus Stamps, chairman of the Torrance YWCA Committee, to serve a three-year term on the Harbor Area YW Board of Directors was announced at the annual meeting held recently in San Pedro. Mrs. Stamps is the second Torrance person to be elected to the area board, the first being Miss Frances Smith of the Torrance Health Center. Mrs. Stamps has represented Torrance ex-officio on the board during the past year. During the coming year she will assume additional duties as second vice-president, a position to which she was elected at the executive meeting immediately following the annual session. Mrs. Stamps, along with other newly elected YW leaders, will attend the Regional Conference, to be held at Asilomar on the Monterey Peninsula June 15-19. Also elected at the board meeting were Mrs. Clarence Halfpenny, president; Mrs. Wilder Hartley, first vice-president; Miss Helen Rose, secretary; and Mrs. D. N. Vaughn, treasurer. Mrs. Hartley is the mother of Mrs. Joyce Kent, former Torrance YW chairman. Among those representing Torrance, Lomita, and Harbor City at the annual meeting were, in addition to Mrs. Stamps, Mrs. William H. Morton, Mrs. Mary Ulmer, Miss Frances Smith, Miss Esther Maxwell, Mrs. Lee Schesse, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Sprouse, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Luke, and the following Y-Teens representing their clubs: Joan Holland, Marlene Schildmeyer, Don Ann Long, Mary Learman, Claudine Baker, Diane Anderson, and Emma Valencia. The statistical part of the annual report was presented by Mrs. Charlotte Luke, Torrance YWCA Program Director. Special speaker was Bruce Findlay, associate superintendent of the Los Angeles Schools, who spoke on "Your Rugged Constitution."

Floral Setting Marks Elementary PTA Rite

Torrance Elementary PTA held their final meeting of the year last Thursday afternoon, with a most impressive installation ceremony conducted by Mrs. Victor Benard. With a flower arrangement suggesting an old-fashioned garden in the background each officer was presented with a bouquet, the colors symbolizing the office. The organization is very grateful to the Torrance Flower Shop for their help in making the bouquets.

A life membership was presented to Robert Genter, a faculty member, in appreciation for his assistance to the association. A past president's pin was presented to Mrs. M. B. Millar as retiring president and she in turn, presented Mrs. Hartley Carr, new president, with the gavel. The combined orchestras of Torrance Elementary and Fern Avenue Schools, under the direction of Mrs. Wood, played several numbers. Mrs. Carr gave a fine report of the PTA convention in San Diego and Mrs. D'Onofrio submitted the historian's report. Guests were Mrs. A. B. Cowie, new council president, Mrs. A. C. Turner retiring president and Mrs. G. J. Derouin, Fern Avenue president.

CAMPING SKILLS PROVE WORTH IN EMERGENCIES

By ALMA WALTON

It has been said that training our youth to become re-sourceful citizens is a very important phase of our civilian defense program. Girl Scouts are taught manual and social skills so that during emergencies they can be applied intelligently. Lord Baden-Powell said, "A Girl Scout is a person who can rely on herself and on whom others can rely."

In the Girl Scouts, Los Angeles Council, there are 5000 trained women volunteers, and more than a thousand groups of girls meeting with the trained leaders to practice good citizenship, reliance, and the ability to follow instructions with intelligence and speed. They are developing skills important to home-making, child care and the out-of-doors when they are earning badges pertaining to Health and Safety, Nutrition, First Aid, Outdoor living, Community Knowledge and Group Cooking. Camping skills provide real material for emergency measures—so camping has priority emphasis.

Rancho site at Camp Osito, Big Bear Lake. The primitive area of Camp Pajarito at Angeles Crest is also available for troop camping. Leaders should make application now to use these facilities.

'Personality Enrichment' Class Open

This year, during the last three camping periods, there will be a troop campsite on the

Miss Frieda Brunner, registered nurse and professional woman of Lynwood, has been conducting a class in "Personality Enrichment." It is held each Thursday evening at the Compton Counseling Service's headquarters, 1317 East Golden avenue, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Miss Brunner has a dynamic personality and offers a wealth of material in technique on poise, self-confidence, social skills and the ability to think on your feet in public speaking.

The class has been gaining momentum in popularity and enthusiasm. Any one who wishes to attain certain goals in public speaking and personality development will be benefited by attending the class. Miss Brunner, who is a counselor-member of the Compton Counseling Service, announces that the course will continue to be open for registration.

The fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance; against such there is no law.

Perry PTAs Review Year's Achievements

Feature of last Thursday's Perry School PTA meeting was a comprehensive resume of the year's accomplishments reported by Mrs. Wagner in her historian's message.

Mrs. George Simonson, Perry's magazine chairman, announced that Perry PTA had been awarded the honor roll certificate indicating that all board members had purchased a subscription to the California Parent Teacher magazine.

Mrs. Victor Winther, room mother representative, thanked all the parents for their cooperation and help during the year.
